

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Joseph E. Robach

Lesli C. Myers

JOSEPH E. ROBACH May 11, 2016

| ISSUE: 2016 WOMEN OF DISTINCTION

Women of
DISTINCTION
HONORING WOMEN IN NEW YORK

Dr. Lesli C. Myers, Ed.D.

Lesli C. Myers, Ed. D. has dedicated her life to the pursuit of education. Currently, she is the Superintendent of Schools in the Brockport Central School District. Dr. Myers received her bachelor's degree in Psychology and her master's degree in Counseling and Human Development, both from the University of Rochester. She went on to earn a master's degree in Urban Educational Administration and Doctor of Education in Executive Leadership from St. John Fisher College. Dr. Myers has continued to emphasize the importance of education through teaching. Impressively, she was the first African-American President of the New York State School Counselors Association.

Dr. Myers testified before the United States Congress; it was her testimony, in part, that resulted in a spending bill for Fiscal Year 2008 that included the largest increase ever to the Elementary and Secondary School Counseling Program. This increase of 77.5% from 2007 was, in fact, the largest percentage increase to any education program found in the House LHHS-Ed FY 2008 Appropriations bill.

Dr. Myers has received many prestigious honors that reflect her dedication to education and the community, including the Rochester Business Journal 40 Under 40, Saint John Fisher Distinguished Alumni Award, Urban League of Rochester Educator Award, and the 2016 Athena Award Finalist.

With an unmatched dedication and love for young people, Dr. Myers has designed and conducted workshops and presentations to elementary and secondary students, undergraduate and graduate students, and many others. Her style is humorous, straightforward and sincere, and she encourages people of all ages and backgrounds to use their creative abilities and talents to eliminate achievement gaps.

Dr. Myers is passionate about her professional work and volunteerism. She looks forward to many more years of continued service to the teachers, students, parents and administrators at Brockport Central School as she dedicates herself to giving back to her community.