

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Andrea Stewart-Cousins

Elmsford Little League Opening Day

ANDREA STEWART-COUSINS April 16, 2016

(Elmsford - April 16th) Let's play ball! Opening day is always a great day for the young Little League players in Elmsford and Senator Stewart-Cousins was among those cheering them on. The honor of throwing out the ceremonial first pitch belonged to Ronnie Mitchell, a former player with the Houston Astros and currently with the NY Mets organization.
