Addabbo Meets with Tuskegee Airmen

JOSEPH P. ADDABBO JR. June 24, 2016

Last week, Senator Joseph P. Addabbo, Jr. had the honor of meeting a group of Tuskegee Airmen who visited Albany for the day. The Senator thanked the men not only for their service during World War II, but for their bravery in breaking through the barrier and being a part of the first African-American military aviation group ever in the history of the United States Armed Forces.
