Brooklyn – State Senator Martin J. Golden (R-C-I, Brooklyn), in partnership with the Southwest Brooklyn Parks Task Force, today has announced the complete lineup of summer concerts set to take stage in our local parks during July and August. The popular concert series kicks off on Tuesday, July 5th when local favorite Head Over Heels plays Shore Road

Park at 79th Street.

The series of fourteen concerts will feature an array of musical acts including the New York Exceptions, the Brooklyn Keys, Carl Thomas, On A Good Run, and a special “Irish Night on Shore Road” featuring the Canny Brothers.

Senator Marty Golden stated, “I am excited to today announce the 2016 Summer concert series which I will again be hosting in our local parks in partnership with some great sponsors. We have a quality lineup of entertainment, so mark your calendar, bring a chair, or a blanket, and make your way to the shows in our beautiful parks. I guarantee you will enjoy the entertainment that will feature classic rock, a Rolling Stones tribute band, the greatest hits of all time, Disco, Doo Wop, Rock n Roll, dance and more.”

The 2016 Concerts in the Park Sponsored by State Senator Marty Golden are in partnership with the support of Tracey Real Estate, the Bay Ridge St. Patrick’s Day Parade, the Law Offices of Christopher James Patsos, LLC, Super Roofer, the Hen House, Dr. Vincent M. Adamo, Chiropractor, Mussels & More, and the Bay Ridge Manor.
