(Middletown, NY)- Senator John J. Bonacic (R/C/I-Mt. Hope) joined local librarians this morning at the Ramapo Catskill Library System's Legislative Breakfast and Annual Meeting. The event was held at the Bear Mountain Inn in Rockland County. The breakfast provides legislators an opportunity to speak directly to the librarians about the state's efforts to assist local libraries with funding and state programs. Senator Bonacic spoke at the event and thanked all those in attendance for the work they do in their communities serving children and adults.
