

2017-J47

Senate Resolution No. 47

BY: Senator STAVISKY

MEMORIALIZING Governor Andrew M. Cuomo to proclaim January 13, 2017, as Korean American Day in the State of New York

WHEREAS, January 13th was declared Korean American Day in 2003 by the United States Congress as a day on which the contributions of Korean Americans should be recognized and celebrated; and

WHEREAS, In December 1902, a group of 102 Korean immigrants embarked on a dangerous cross-Pacific voyage on the S. S. Gaelic to land in Honolulu, Hawaii on January 13, 1903; and

WHEREAS, Over the next three years, approximately one thousand Koreans entered the United States through San Francisco following countrymen who had established homes, educated their children, and established native language publications; they gradually migrated to the eastern United States where subsequent generations of Korean Americans established themselves in new communities; and

WHEREAS, As patriotic citizens, Korean Americans served with distinction in the U.S. Armed Forces during World Wars I and II, the Korean conflict, the Vietnam War and in the Middle East conflicts; and the door for new Korean immigrants who have become one of the fastest growing groups of Asian Americans to settle in the United States; and

WHEREAS, Since their arrival more than 100 years ago, Korean Americans have made outstanding contributions throughout American society; their rich cultural heritage and traditions have contributed greatly to the quality of life for residents of New York; and

WHEREAS, Korean-owned businesses generate nearly $80 billion annually in the United States with New York State having the second largest number of Korean-owned businesses in the country; many Korean Americans live and work in Queens; through their hard work and tenacious effort, they have helped create a thriving multi-cultural community; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to memorialize Governor Andrew M. Cuomo to proclaim January 13, 2017, as Korean American Day in the State of New York, and to honor the contributions of Korean Americans in the United States and New York; and be it further

RESOLVED, That copies of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to The Honorable Andrew M. Cuomo, Governor of the State of New York; the Korean American Association of New York; the Korean American Association of Queens; the Korean American Civic Empowerment Association; Korean Community Services; and the Korean American Family Service Center.
