

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Elaine Phillips

Senator Phillips Speaks With Hicksville Community Council

ELAINE PHILLIPS February 6, 2017

Senator Elaine Phillips (R-Manhasset) recently served as the guest speaker at a meeting of the Hicksville Community Council.

Senator Phillips spoke with the members about a number of issues, including her efforts to deliver tax relief by passing legislation to make the property tax cap permanent and restore Nassau County's senior tax abatement program; the Governor's Executive Budget proposal and her efforts to protect Long Island's drinking water. Senator Phillips also answered questions from the audience.

Senator Phillips is pictured speaking at a recent meeting of the Hicksville Community Council.