

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Daniel L. Squadron

Squadron in BK Eagle: 5 a.m. demolition at former Long Island College Hospital (LICH) riles Brooklyn neighbors

DANIEL L. SQUADRON February 6, 2017

| ISSUE: LICH, LONG ISLAND COLLEGE HOSPITAL, COBBLE HILL, CONSTRUCTION NOISE, DEPARTMENT OF BUILDINGS

Senator Squadron wrote to the Department of Buildings to "to reject any future After Hours Variances" applications at the former LICH site and ensure Fortis, the developer, complies with safety and security requirements." See the Brooklyn Eagle's coverage below and the letter, attached.

5 a.m. demolition at former Long Island College Hospital (LICH) riles Brooklyn neighbors

Squadron: Fortis 'thumbs nose' at Cobble Hill

By Mary Frost Brooklyn Daily Eagle

q

On Friday, six officials representing the neighborhood sent a letter of complaint to DOB about the after-hours permits and to also note other unsafe conditions at the site.

q

“We urge the Department of Buildings (DOB) to reject any future AHV applications at the former LICH site and ensure Fortis, the developer, complies with safety and security requirements,” said the letter signed by state Sen. Daniel Squadron, U.S. Rep. Nydia Velázquez, NYC Comptroller Scott Stringer, Assemblymember Jo Anne Simon and Councilmembers Brad Lander and Stephen Levin.

Read more: <http://www.brooklyneagle.com/articles/2017/2/3/5-am-demolition-former-long-island-college-hospital-lich-riles-brooklyn-neighbors>