

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Elaine Phillips

Senator Phillips Reads to Manorhaven Second Graders

ELAINE PHILLIPS April 24, 2017

| ISSUE: EDUCATION

Senator Elaine Phillips (R-Manhasset) recently visited Manorhaven Elementary School in Port Washington to serve as a guest reader to the second grade.

Senator Phillips read “If I were President” by Catherine Stier and DyAnn DiSalvo-Ryan to the students. The book helps children learn about the presidency and government, what their responsibilities are and some of the day to day tasks a President must deal with.