WHEREAS, Based in Bayside, Queens, the OSC is the oldest performing cultural organization in the borough; it was established in 1927, by a group of Flushing residents who loved to sing; its inception preceded

WHEREAS, This vital organization accomplishes their mission by providing its diverse membership of volunteer singers with joy-filled rehearsal and exhilarating performance experiences which expand their musical abilities; offering opportunities for local high school and college students to learn music theory, voice production, stage presence and civic responsibility by attending regular rehearsals and performing with the chorus, professional soloists and orchestra; and presenting Holiday and Spring concerts which are widely-recognized as the premier choice for Queens audiences who want to hear excellent choral music; and

WHEREAS, The OSQ traditionally presents a Holiday Concert featuring Part I of Handel's "Messiah" along with a selection of holiday favorites and a Spring Concert; its vast repertoire includes many classic choral compositions such as Verdi's "Requiem," Beethoven's "Ninth Symphony," Rutter's "Magnificat," Mozart's "Requiem" and Rossini's "Stabat Mater";

WHEREAS, Under the luminous leadership of President of the Board of Directors, Charlene DeGregoria, the OSQ continues its cultural mission of sharing a love of classical choral music with its friends and neighbors throughout Queens; and

WHEREAS, It is most fitting that we take time to celebrate the arts of our Nation, to honor our artists, and to express our appreciation to everyone who patronizes the arts; and as we celebrate the arts, we celebrate and give thanks to our American freedom, the only atmosphere in which artists can truly create and in which art is truly the expression of the soul; now, therefore, be it
