Flooding Assistance: Emergency Response Mobile Command Center Schedule

PATTY RITCHIE May 18, 2017

As people along Lake Ontario and the St. Lawrence River continue to deal with flooding, State Senator Patty Ritchie is letting those impacted know that the state is setting up Emergency Response Mobile Command Centers across our region.

These centers will work with property owners to address erosion, offer technical guidance, provide on-site emergency permitting to residents and offer insurance help. All centers will be open from 10:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. and additional details are as follows

Friday May 19th

St. Lawrence County

City of Ogdensburg

100 Riverside Ave (The Dobisky Center)

Saturday May 20th

Oswego County

Town of Mexico

New York State DOT Maintenance Center

5846 Scenic Ave

Sunday May 21st

Jefferson County

Town of Lyme

Chaumont Volunteer Fire Department

11385 NY Route-12E

If you are dealing with flooding related issues and cannot visit a Mobile Command Center, Senator Ritchie encourages you to reach out to the state's Flood Assistance Hotline at 1-866-244-3839, or to contact her here.
