

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Thomas F. O'Mara

'Military Appreciation Day' at Watkins Glen International on Sunday, July 2

THOMAS F. O'MARA June 27, 2017

| ISSUE: MILITARY APPRECIATION

“Watkins Glen International is proud to again pay tribute to those who serve and those who have served the United States of America,” said WGI President Michael Printup.

Watkins Glen International will once again host "Military Appreciation Day" at the track on Sunday, July 2, 2017.

See the following portion of WGI's event announcement:

WATKINS GLEN, N.Y. (June 23, 2017) – In honor of those who currently serve our country, and those who have served in the past, Watkins Glen International is offering complimentary tickets to active duty military personnel and veterans of the United States Armed Forces for the Sunday, July 2 IMSA WeatherTech SportsCar Championship Sahlen's Six Hours of The Glen.

“Watkins Glen International is proud to again pay tribute to those who serve and those who have served the United States of America,” said WGI President Michael Printup. “We are all very grateful to these men and women for their sacrifices that they make, and we're honored to have them as our guests for the Sahlen's Six Hours of The Glen.”

Guests who show their military ID at Gates 4A or Gate 5 from 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. on Sunday will receive two complimentary Kaplan University tickets. Guests should enter the facility from Lots 3 and 5 to participate.

Read the full announcement, "Watkins Glen International proudly presents Military Appreciation Day at Sahlen's Six Hours"