Senator Phillips' Hosts Back To School Backpacks And Supplies Drive

ELAINE PHILLIPS July 28, 2017

Senator Elaine Phillips has announced she is partnering with Senator Kemp Hannaon, the United Way, Long Island Nets and local libraries to host a “Back to School Backpacks and Supplies Drive” to assist needy students in the area.

“As Senator, one of my top priorities is to ensure that our children have the tools necessary to acquire the knowledge, skills and attitudes to not only succeed, but to excel, within and beyond the classroom,” said Senator Phillips. “With the new school year quickly approaching,

I am happy to be coordinating this backpack and supplies drive with the United Way, Long Island Nets and our local libraries.

Supplies needed include backpacks, pens, pencils, rulers, protractors, lined paper, notebooks, composition paper, folders, binders, basic calculator, glue sticks and highlighters.

The drive starts today and will run through August 17. Donations may be dropped off at any of the following locations:
