

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Thomas F. O'Mara

Senator O'Mara's weekly column 'From the Capitol' ~ for the week of November 27, 2017 ~ 'Don't let Cyber Monday spoil the season'

THOMAS F. O'MARA November 27, 2017

| ISSUE: IDENTITY THEFT

One thing we know for sure about our rapid, global march into the world of e-commerce is that it has become big, big business. That means, however, that there's an unprecedented exchange of online information occurring, which compels this reminder: Don't overlook the privacy and other public policy issues raised by our leap into this segment of the modern economy.

Senator O'Mara offers his weekly perspective on many of the key challenges and issues facing the Legislature, as well as on legislative actions, local initiatives, state programs and policies, and more. Stop back every Monday for Senator O'Mara's latest column "From the Capitol..."

This week, "Don't let 'Cyber Monday' spoil the season"

[see attached copy above of Senator O'Mara's column in The Leader on November 26, 2017]