Ritchie: Make Your Voice Heard Through My Legislative Survey

BRIAN DWYER January 5, 2018

| ISSUE: AGRICULTURE, TAXES, WAR ON DRUGS, COMMUNITY HEALTH

State Senator Patty Ritchie is encouraging her constituents throughout Jefferson, St. Lawrence and Oswego Counties to make their voices heard on key issues through her 2018 Legislative Survey.

The 2018 Legislative Survey is one way Senator Ritchie is working to connect with constituents and gather their thoughts on major issues, including state spending, job creation, heroin and opioid abuse and education, among other topics.

“As the 2018 Legislative Session begins, the New Year brings new opportunities to refocus legislative efforts on what matters most to those living in the 48th State Senate District and across Upstate,” said Senator Ritchie.

“Through this survey, I am looking for input on job creation and opportunity, lowering taxes, community safety, making state government work better for everyone and more. As I work toward those goals, the feedback provided by those I represent will be invaluable.”
