

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Fred Akshar

Sen. Fred Akshar Honors Carole Coppens as his 2018 Woman of Distinction

FRED AKSHAR May 2, 2018

| ISSUE: WOMAN OF DISTINCTION

(ALBANY, NY) This week Senator Akshar recognized Carole Coppens as his NYS Senate 2018 Woman of Distinction for the 52nd Senate District.

Each year, the New York State Senate honors women who have enriched the quality of life in their communities across New York.

Carole Coppens has served as Executive Director of the YWCA Binghamton and Broome County since June 2000. She holds a Master's Degree in Exercise Physiology from the University of Colorado.

Ms. Coppens was elected to the Board of Directors for the YWCA USA in 2008 and served two terms ending in 2013. She was also nominated to the YWCA World Service Council in October 2008, and currently serves on the Steering, Nominating and Advocacy committees for the Supportive Housing Network of New York. Ms. Coppens also serves as Chair of the Governance Committee for the Homeless of the Southern Tier.

Ms. Coppens has received numerous awards during her career. In 2002, the Broome County Status of Women Council recognized her as a Woman of Achievement. In November 2011, the City of Binghamton established The Human Rights Commission; Ms. Coppens was appointed by the Mayor as a founding member. She also served on numerous local not-for-profit boards, including the SOS Shelter, Southern Tier AIDS Program, League of Women Voters and the American Heart Association.

Recently, Ms. Coppens received several citations for her outstanding commitment to developing innovative supportive housing for the homeless in Broome County from the New York State Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance, Homeless Housing and Assistance Corporation. She was also recognized by the New York State Assembly and Senate for outstanding leadership and dedication in restoring the historic YWCA building.

In 2017, the New York State Senate and Assembly presented Ms. Coppens with a Legislative Resolution commemorating the 125th Anniversary of the YWCA of Binghamton and Broome County. Broome County and the City of Binghamton have cited her work with the YWCA as well, and she was nominated to serve on the Broome County Family Violence Prevention Council and also inducted into the Binghamton Rotary Club # 64. Ms. Coppens maintains a professional membership and certification with the American College of Sports Medicine.

"Throughout her career, Carole Coppens has dedicated herself to improving the lives of families across our community," said Senator Fred Akshar. "Because of her work, struggling families have received critical support and services in their times of need and more opportunities to help them get back on their feet. I'm truly inspired by the great work she has done for our community and I'm proud to select her as the 52nd District's 2018 Woman of Distinction."

Ms. Coppens currently lives in Apalachin, New York with her husband and cat.

You can read more about Ms. Coppens here.