

2017-J5591

Senate Resolution No. 5591

BY: Senator YOUNG

CONGRATULATING the Livingston County Children's Protective Association upon the occasion of celebrating its 100th Anniversary

WHEREAS, It is the intent of this Legislative Body to recognize those organizations that enhance the quality and character of life in the communities across New York State; and

WHEREAS, Attendant to such concern, and in full accord with its long-standing traditions, this Legislative Body is justly proud to congratulate the Livingston County Children's Protective Association upon the occasion of celebrating its 100th Anniversary; and

WHEREAS, In 1918, Judge Lockwood Doty, who was then County Judge and the father of Mrs. Mary Teal of Geneseo, found an urgent need for a group of women to assist the one Social Service Worker who had to oversee 75 different families; during this time, there were 46 children being supported by county funds; and

WHEREAS, A small group of women organized and called their organization the Livingston County Children's Protective and Welfare Association; this group of women called on foster parents and furnished transportation for the social worker; since then, the organization has grown and now has approximately 30 active members with most of the time and money being spent on the foster child, expanding now to 160 foster children in the county; and

WHEREAS, The Livingston County Children's Protective Association's purpose is to work for the general well-being of the community by offering programs for the welfare of children and others needing support and care through promoting sound and humane public welfare administration; and

WHEREAS, The Livingston County Children's Protective Association is composed of private citizens who pledge to give moral and financial support and to assist with the work of the County Social Services Department in going beyond the basic necessities of life; and

WHEREAS, It is the intent of this Legislative Body to publicly recognize those organizations that have achieved notable success in their service to the residents and communities of this great Empire State; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to congratulate the Livingston County Children's Protective Association upon the occasion of celebrating its 100th Anniversary; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to the Livingston County Children's Protective Association.