BY: M. of A. Rules (Zebrowski)

MEMORIALIZING Governor Andrew M. Cuomo to proclaim October 2018, as Pit Bull Awareness Month in the State of New York, in conjunction with the observance of National Pit Bull Awareness Month

WHEREAS, It is the custom of this Legislative Body to recognize official months that are set aside to increase awareness of serious issues that affect the lives of citizens of New York State; and

WHEREAS, Attendant to such concern, and in full accord with its long-standing traditions, it is the sense of this Legislative Body to memorialize Governor Andrew M. Cuomo to proclaim October 2018, as Pit Bull Awareness Month in the State of New York, in conjunction with the observance of National Pit Bull Awareness Month; and

WHEREAS, Established in 2011, National Pit Bull Awareness Month brings together pet owners, shelters, breed clubs, and rescue organizations to celebrate pit bulls with adoption, education, and responsible ownership events in communities across the nation; and

WHEREAS, Pit bulls have been unfairly stereotyped in recent years as a vicious breed due to their past use as fighting dogs by unscrupulous owners; and

WHEREAS, In fact, no dogs, including pit bulls, are born aggressive, and such behavior is the result of improper upbringing; and

WHEREAS, Pit bulls are a loving, kind breed of dog, which require proper socialization and training just as any other breed; and

WHEREAS, In 2008, the American Temperament Society published testing results which gave pit bulls a passing grade in the mid-80% range; in addition, pit bulls scored better than 119 of 218 breeds for temperament; and

WHEREAS, Recently, a 175-pound pit bull named Hulk has become a media sensation for his gentle demeanor and kind personality; and

WHEREAS, A celebrated canine in American history, pit bulls were featured on World War I posters used to recruit and support troops; in addition, numerous public figures, including Presidents Theodore Roosevelt, Woodrow Wilson, and Jimmy Carter, as well as Helen Keller and Fred Astaire, have owned them as pets; and

WHEREAS, Today, pit bulls can be found throughout society, and are valued as service animals, police dogs, and family pets; and

WHEREAS, The popular television show "Pit Bulls and Parolees" has also shown pit bulls' therapeutic capabilities, matching them with former inmates on parole and helping them overcome many personal issues; and

WHEREAS, Numerous shelters and organizations throughout the State of New York have volunteered their efforts to join together in order to change public perceptions and to combat negative stereotypes about pit bulls, while promoting responsible ownership and appreciation for this wonderful breed; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to memorialize Governor Andrew M. Cuomo to proclaim October 2018, as Pit Bull Awareness Month in the State of New York, in conjunction with the observance of National Pit Bull Awareness Month; and be it further
