Assembly Resolution No. 1367

BY: M. of A. Wallace

COMMEMORATING the 100th Anniversary of the Independence of Poland on November 11, 2018

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body to recognize and pay just tribute to the cultural heritage of the ethnic groups which comprise and contribute to the richness and diversity of the community of the State of New York; and

WHEREAS, Attendant to such concern, and in keeping with its time-honored traditions, it is the intent of this Legislative Body to commemorate the 100th Anniversary of the Independence of Poland to be celebrated on Sunday, November 11, 2018; and

WHEREAS, The celebration of Poland's independence affirms the culture, identity and self-esteem of a people; it honors a rich heritage and illuminates Poland's history and tradition, as well as the spirit of an indomitable people; and

WHEREAS, The people of this great State and nation and Poland enjoy a deep and abiding relationship rooted in kinship and culture, and many New Yorkers proudly trace their own roots to Poland; and

WHEREAS, Poland's hard-won independence came after 123 years of the country being partitioned between Prussia, Russia, and the

Austro-Hungarian Empire; and

WHEREAS, During World War I, the United States vowed to assist Poland in attaining its independence, as it had been outlined in Woodrow Wilson's Fourteen Points for enduring peace; and

WHEREAS, After the defeat of the Central Powers, the Polish people seized both military and civil power of the previously partitioned sections and began to build their future state; and

WHEREAS, After its independence was confirmed in the Treaty of Versailles, November 11th was chosen as the date to recognize Poland's Independence; this date aligned with other countries' days of remembrance for those who made great sacrifices during World War I, and to commemorate the day Marshal Jozef Pilsudski was appointed Commander in Chief of Polish forces by the Regency Council; and

WHEREAS, Poland's National Independence Day is therefore simultaneously a celebration of the reemergence of a Polish state and a commemoration of those who fought for it; though it was not officially recognized until 1937, this special day had been observed annually since 1920, excluding the years Poland was occupied by Germany during World War II; and

WHEREAS, The holiday was officially replaced by the National Day of Poland's Revival, celebrated on the July 22nd anniversary of the community PKWN Manifesto under the Soviet Union's Joseph Stalin; after the collapse of communism, the original November 11th holiday was reinstated; and

opportunity to recognize the significance of their contributions to the quality and character of life, and, through events and activities, for all people to gain a greater appreciation of Poland's history and traditions, and of the role Poles have played, and will continue to play, in our society; and

WHEREAS, This Legislative Body is pleased to have this opportunity to recognize such events of significance which foster ethnic pride and exemplify the cultural diversity that represents and strengthens the fabric of the people and the State of New York; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to commemorate the 100th Anniversary of the Independence of Poland.
