Senator Phillips announced she is partnering with the Long Island Nets to host summer basketball camps for local children.

“I am excited to partner with the Long Island Nets to host free basketball camps this summer for children in grades 3-7. The one-day camps will help young basketball players develop athletically and participants will learn about shooting, passing, dribbling, defense and more from a Long Island Nets clinician. Space is limited, so be sure to sign up soon,” said Senator Phillips.

There are currently two camps scheduled, with a third date in the works. Details are as follows:

Tuesday, July 24, 2018

Chabad of Port Washington

80 Shore Road, Port Washington
