SENATOR SEPÚLVEDA WORKS TO MAKE NEW YORK A BETTER PLACE FOR ALL ITS RESIDENTS

The New York State Senate and Assembly have passed six major pieces of legislation sponsored by newly elected State Senator Luis Sepúlveda. "I am proud that in my first 5 weeks as a new State Senator, six pieces of important legislation I sponsored have passed both houses of the state legislature," stated Senator Sepúlveda.

According to Senator Sepúlveda, "The six bills passing the Senate shortly after I was sworn into office are significant for their impact on helping to improve the lives of crime victims, our growing elderly, our disabled veterans, our career oriented high school students, those suffering from the obesity epidemic and former inmates struggling to change their lives.

The six piece of legislation which will now go to the Governor for approval are:
