Senator Carlucci And New York State Senate Democratic Majority Passes Domestic Animal Welfare Package

SENATOR DAVID CARLUCCI June 4, 2019

| ISSUE: ANIMAL ADVOCACY

Senator David Carlucci (D-Rockland/Westchester) and the Senate Democratic Majority passed a package of bills that will help protect New Yorker's pets and place stricter penalties on animal abusers. Pets are part of families and become beloved companions. Sadly though before some animals find forever homes, animal abuse can commonly occur due to dogfighting rings, puppy mills, and animal hoarding. According to the ASPCA every 60 seconds an animal is abused.

“It is our job to prevent cruelty to animals and increase penalties on abusers,” said Senator David Carlucci. “To let animals suffer in silence is wrong.”

There is a recognized connection between the abuse of pets and abusive and aggressive behavior towards people. Animal abusers have been found to be five times as likely to also harm other humans. Additionally, a 2013 study found that 43% of those who commit school massacres also committed acts of cruelty to animals. To address domestic animal abuse and recognize it as a warning sign for more serious crimes, the Senate Democratic Majority created the Domestic Animal Welfare Committee. The legislation advanced by the Senate Majority to protect domestic animals includes:

Banning the Declawing of Cats: This bill, S.5532B, sponsored by Deputy Leader Senator Michael Gianaris, prohibits the performance of declawing procedures on cats.

Alert System for Pet Owners: This bill, S.4577, sponsored by Chair of Committee on Domestic Animal Welfare, Senator Monica Martinez, creates an alert system for pet owners requiring them to bring in their companion animals during extreme weather conditions.
