HOPEWELL – Senator Pam Helming attended the celebration of Mary Ann Trickey and Lydia Schadler on Wednesday, Dec. 18 to honor their service to the Town of Hopewell. Mary Ann Trickey served for 26 years as Town Clerk with the Town of Hopewell and Lydia Schadler was Town Councilwoman for 16 years.

“It was an honor to recognize Mary Ann Trickey and Lydia Schadler for their dedication as public servants to the Town of Hopewell and its citizens. They have been critical to the operations of the community and those who succeed them will have big shoes to fill. It has been an absolute pleasure working with Mary Ann and Lydia and I wish them all the best," Senator Helming said.
