Senator Helming Celebrates Opening of Byrne Dairy in Farmington

PAMELA HELMING December 19, 2019

FARMINGTON - Senator Pam Helming, with Town of Farmington Supervisor Peter Ingalsbe and other local officials and Chamber of Commerce members, recently attended the ribbon cutting of a new Byrne Dairy location in Farmington. This 4,232 square foot convenience store includes fuel pumps and other site improvements and is now open for business. The remainder of the project which includes sidewalk completion, street lights and landscaping will begin in the Spring of 2020.

“It was a pleasure to participate in today’s ribbon cutting to celebrate the opening of a Byrne Dairy location in Farmington and I extend my congratulations to the Byrne family! It is wonderful to see this project come to fruition. This is another welcome addition to the Town of Farmington and it is great to see the town continuing to grow and thrive," Senator Helming said.
