Senator Helming Celebrates Town of Canandaigua Retirees Joyce Marthaller, Tom Schwartz, Kris Singer and Kevin Reynolds

PAMELA HELMING December 20, 2019

Senator Pam Helming recently celebrated the retirement of four employees of the Town of Canandaigua. Tom Schwartz served from 2010-2019 as Planning Board Chairperson; Joyce Mathaller served from 2003-2019 as Planning Board Chairperson and Environmental Conservation Board Chairperson; Kevin Reynolds served from 2009-2019 as Environmental Conservation Board Chairperson and on the Canandaigua Town Board and Kris Singer served from 2014 to 2019 for the Town.

“These individuals have demonstrated a tremendous commitment to public service during their time with the Town of Canandaigua. They have made such a positive impact on the community and their passion and leadership will be missed by all of the residents they have served,” said Senator Helming.
