Senator James Sanders Jr. Delivers Meals to Local Police Precincts During Coronavirus Crisis

JAMES SANDERS JR. March 28, 2020

State Senator James Sanders Jr. (D-Rochdale Village, Far Rockaway) delivered meals to police precincts in his district yesterday, March 27, 2020. The effort, led by staffer Lisa George, ensured that meals were given to the hardworking officers at the 102nd Precinct in Richmond Hill, 103rd Precinct in Jamaica and 113th Precinct in Rochdale Village. More meals will be delivered to other precincts in the future.

"My office is proud to be doing our part to help the brave men and women of the NYPD, who protect our neighborhoods every day and risk their safety, especially during this coronavirus pandemic," Sanders said. "We want them to know we appreciate their efforts and bringing them meals is just one way we are showing our gratitude."
