| ISSUE: CENSUS 2020

In terms of our long-term, post-COVID19 recovery, completing the census is one way that you can help ensure resources locally and statewide. Yes, it's that important.

Senator O'Mara offers his weekly perspective on many of the key challenges and issues facing the Legislature, as well as on legislative actions, local initiatives, state programs and policies, and more. Stop back every Monday for Senator O'Mara's latest column "From the Capitol..."

This week, "Completing the Census helps us move forward"
