The graphic features a blue background with a faint image of a building. At the top, the text "SKOUTIS On Your Street" is written in large, bold, yellow letters, with "virtual edition" in a white, cursive font to its right. In the center, the date and time "Tuesday August 18 5:30-7:00 PM" are displayed in large white and yellow letters. Below this, the text "email cfoster@nysenate.gov for the Zoom link" is written in white. On the right side, there is a vertical photo of Senator James Skoufis, a man with dark hair wearing a light blue button-down shirt and dark trousers, smiling.

Senator James Skoufis (D-Hudson Valley) announced that his annual town hall series, Skoufis On Your Street, will take place virtually this year. Since first being elected in 2012, Skoufis has toured the district in a series of meet and greets every year to locally owned small businesses to give residents an opportunity to speak with him in their own neighborhood; this year, in an effort to meet the community in a safe and flexible setting, the town hall will happen via Zoom.

The town hall will take place on Tuesday, August 18 from 5:30 PM - 7:00 PM. Those who would like to participate may RSVP to cfoster@nysenate.gov for the Zoom link.

“Bringing my office to my constituents, in any way I can during these ever-changing times, is part of my continued effort to be as accessible a representative as possible,” said Senator Skoufis. “The most important part of my job continues to be listening to the needs, concerns, and perspectives of the people I represent on the issues that matter most to them, which is why I will always prioritize this aspect of my duty.”

If members of the press would like to join, they are asked to RSVP with gulotta@nysenate.gov.
