Senator Pam Helming presented Reliant Credit Union President and CEO Pamela Heald and Reliant employees with a New York State Senate Empire Award in recognition of the credit union's 50th anniversary.

Reliant has nine branches across Monroe, Ontario, and Wayne counties, including its Webster branch located at 870 Holt Road.

“Congratulations to Reliant Credit Union on 50 years of service,” said Senator Helming.

“Reliant is a valued local employer and community partner. Thank you to President and CEO Pamela Heald, and all Reliant employees, for your dedication to delivering exceptional service to your members and our communities.”

The New York State Senate Empire Award recognizes businesses for significant contributions to the growth and prosperity of their communities and state.
