Senator Pam Helming announced that 85 residents of the 54th District have been nominated for the New York State Senate Veterans Hall of Fame.

“One of my greatest honors as a State Senator is to recognize the men and women who have served with honor and distinction in the United States Armed Forces,” said Senator Pam Helming. “I am indebted to our veterans for their dedicated service to our country and our communities, and I am proud to recognize these nominees for the Veterans Hall of Fame. Thank you to the families and friends who took the time to nominate them and share their incredible stories.”

Senator Helming’s father was a U.S. Air Force veteran who worked as an airplane mechanic during the Korean War. He trained at Sampson Air Force Base. Her son-in-law completed several deployments as a U.S. Army Green Beret.
