This November State Senator Joseph P. Addabbo, Jr. will co-sponsor the Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings' (OATH) Third Citywide Symposium for Veterans Hearing Support (VHS). Due to COVID-19, this year's symposium will be held virtually.

On Wednesday, November 18 — one week after Veterans Day — the OATH VHS symposium will provide NYC military veterans with important information about what to do when they get a summons or ticket issued by a city enforcement agency for an alleged violation, as well as provide veterans with valuable information on how to navigate the administrative law process and get access to resources and assistance when they contest a summons or a ticket.

The event is scheduled to take place in a webinar platform from 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. on Webex.

“I am honored to be a co-sponsor for this great virtual symposium,” Addabbo, a member of the Senate Veterans, Homeland Security and Military Affairs Committee, said. “Often times our veterans have trouble navigating governmental systems when they return home. We hope to provide veterans with valuable information and hopefully ease this process if a veteran receives a summons or ticket. As I like to say, every day is Veterans Day, and I hope to see many veterans participate in the virtual seminar.”
