SENATOR JOSEPH P. ADDABBO, JR. June 3, 2021

| ISSUE: QUEENS POWER 100, CITY & STATE, ADDABBO

“It is an honor to be named to City & State’s 2021 Queens Power 100 as one of the local leaders who are working to bring Queens back after we were all hurt by the COVID-19 pandemic. I was ranked at #14 on the Power 100 list for the work in representing my district and fighting to legalize mobile sports betting in our state, which is expected to bring in hundreds of millions of dollars in educational funding and tax revenue for New York State. I congratulate all my colleagues in government and other individuals that were named to the list. I look forward to working with all of them to keep Queens thriving.”
