Patrick M. Gallivan

Senator Gallivan's Votes for June 8, 2021

JIM RANNEY June 8, 2021

| ISSUE: NYS SENATE

The following bills were approved by the NYS Senate. Senator Gallivan's vote is noted.

2936A Adds a new section 19-0329 to the Environmental Conservation Law to completely phase out the use of fuel oil grade 6 for the purposes of providing heat for any building or facility in the state, This section also makes clear that nothing in this act shall preempt a municipality from adopting a more stringent law. AYE

911 This bill would prohibit the introduction of possession of an opioid antagonist to any trial, hearing, or proceeding under certain sections of the penal law, real property tax law or real property actions and proceedings law for purposes of establishing probable cause for an arrest or as evidence that a building or premises is being used for illegal trade, manufacture, or other illegal business. Requires law enforcement agencies ensure that officers receive appropriate instruction relating to the introduction of opioid antagonists into evidence in certain cases. NAY

4402B Enacts the "Gender Recognition Act". Amends pertinent sections of the civil rights law governing the process of changing a person's name by removing the requirement that the order granting such be published in a newspaper. Also expands the ability to seal name change papers by defining the term totality of circumstances (to include risk of violence or discrimination due to status as transgender or as a subject of domestic violence), which is the standard the court must adhere to. This bill also establishes a new Article 6-a to permit a person to petition to change their sex designation and further requires the NYS DMV to issue Driver's license and ID cards with an X sex designation in addition to Male and Female. Finally, amends the Public Health law to permit parents to choose on a child's birth certificate to be designated as "parent" instead of "father" or "mother" and requires upon application the issuance of new birth certificates reflecting the gender stated on the application and any name change (if accompanied by court order). NAY

6017 This bill would make changes to the Freedom of Information Law (FOIL) and to section 50-b of the civil rights law. This bill would provide that when an agency is considering denying access to records under the law enforcement exception to FOIL on the grounds that disclosure would interfere with a judicial proceeding, then the decision of whether to grant access would be made by the judge presiding over that judicial proceeding. This bill would clarify that a denial of access to records under FOIL does not prevent a person from obtaining records under any other law. In addition, the bill would clarify that parties to any civil or criminal action or proceeding can use FOIL to obtain records concerning the action or proceeding. Furthermore, this bill clarifies that access to a record cannot be withheld due to the type or category of record. This bill would also amend the law enforcement exception to FOIL to make clear that records cannot be withheld solely because they relate in some manner to an investigation or criminal proceeding. This bill would also amend section 50-b of the civil rights law to clarify that only the portions of a report that would identify a victim of a sexual offense are exempt from disclosure. NAY (Potential to compromise criminal investigations and endanger victims/witnesses.)
