

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

James Tedisco

Tedisco Honors 9 Centenarians in Glenville Senator Tedisco Presents NYS Senate Commendation Awards to 9 Capital Region Residents with a Combined Age of over 910 Years!

SENATOR JIM TEDISCO September 22, 2021

On National Centenarian Day, Senator Jim Tedisco (R,C-Glenville) today participated in a birthday celebration for nine Capital Region residents who are each age 100 or older who reside at the Glendale Nursing Home in Glenville. Tedisco presented each of the centenarians with a New York State Senate Commendation Award in honor of their combined age of over 910 years (will be 912 years at the end of this week with two birthdays to come later this week). "We celebrate the lives of these nine very special residents of the Glendale Nursing Home who have had a very positive impact on our community over the past 100 years and more and truly represent the best of New York State. We wish these nine centenarians many more happy years to come," said Senator Tedisco.

The centenarians who Senator Tedisco honored and their ages:

Adele Leehrsen (101)

Linda Senn (100)

Hester Male (102)

John Marciniak (100, will be 101 on 9/25)

Dorothy C. Frederick (101)

Winifred L. Tyrell (101)

Irene Healey (103)

Mary Reber (102) (turning 102 on 9/21)

Mary Pomato (100, will be 101 on 9/24)

