On Thursday, November 18, State Senator Joseph P. Addabbo, Jr. joined Kevin Alexander, the Presidents/CEO of the Rockaway Development and Revitalization Corp (RDRC), outside of the shopping center located at the Breezy Point Co-Op at 202-30 Rockaway Point Boulevard to distribute free hand sanitizers to residents and PPE to the local businesses. “It’s great when you are able to partner with an amazing group like the RDRC and help our local businesses,” Addabbo said. “It was a pleasure to be in Breezy Point on such a beautiful day and to chat with the local residents. I wish them a happy, healthy and safe holiday season.”
