Senator Michelle Hinchey Announces New Senate Office Location in Guilderland

MICHELLE HINCHEY January 19, 2022

GUILDERLAND, NY – State Senator Michelle Hinchey (SD-46) today announced the opening of her Guilderland Office, continuing her mission to provide state government services to communities across her 5-county district, which includes seven municipalities in Albany County. The Senator’s constituent services team based in Guilderland can be contacted at 518-616-7177 during regular business hours, Monday through Friday, from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm.

Senator Michelle Hinchey said, “In just our first year in office, my team has helped over 1,200 people gain access to food and rental assistance, secure the unemployment they're owed, get connected to a small business resource, resolve a problem with their utility company — and everything in between. I am so pleased to announce the opening of our new Guilderland office so my team and I can continue to bring state government services directly to the people we represent. If we can be of assistance to you or your family, please don't hesitate to contact our Guilderland office at 518-616-7177, and we'll do everything we can to help.”
