Senator Stec: Lt. Governor's Resignation Needed, Proof that Further Ethics Reform is Vital

DANIEL G. STEC April 12, 2022

| ISSUE: BRIAN BENJAMIN

“Lieutenant Governor Benjamin’s resignation was essential and it's good that he didn’t prolong the chaos and turmoil his arrest has caused. Going forward, we need to enact more stringent ethics laws and have an ethics commission that has the oversight to ensure further scandals like this become rare and stop feeling like the norm.”
