Senator Pam Helming recently toured the new RealEats headquarters in Geneva and presented the company with a New York State Senate Empire Award.

Senator Helming thanked RealEats for its commitment to the Finger Lakes region and its farmers, and for its contributions to the community, including meal donations to the Geneva Center of Concern food pantry.

“We are proud to have RealEats headquartered in Geneva and the 54th District. RealEats is a success story built on innovation and collaboration. To Dan Wise and the RealEats team, thank you for your continued commitment to the Finger Lakes region, local jobs, and local farmers. I wish you continued growth and success!"
