Recently, Senator Mario R. Mattera had the honor of attending the Court of Honor for the newest Eagle Scouts from Boy Scout Troop 78 in Huntington. During the special ceremony, scouts Nicholas Fracasso, Harry Larson, Richard Zboray, Jack Jozefowski and Nathaniel Bernich were recognized for their work to achieve the rank of Eagle Scout.

“Congratulations to Nicholas, Harry, Richard, Jack and Nathaniel on this tremendous achievement. It is my hope that they, along with their families and scout leaders, are truly proud and know how much of an inspiration they are to our community,” stated Senator

Mattera.
