Senator Dan Stec (R,C-Queensbury) today welcomes local student Danika Clowney to the state Capitol as part of the League of Women Voters' 2023 Students Inside Albany Conference. Clowney, a student at CV-TEC, spent the afternoon in Albany at the Capitol and shadowed the senator while the Senate convened for session. Stec appreciated having the opportunity to welcome her to Albany and help one of our students better engage with the state legislative process.

“It was great having Danika Clowney here in Albany today and getting to learn more about her and her interest in public service,” said Stec. “It’s important to encourage civic engagement and programs like the Students Inside Albany Conference are a great way to get our students involved and interested in how our government functions. I hope she enjoyed her time here at the Capitol and I look forward to hearing great things about her in the future.”
