Final Issue of 2010

A Holiday Thank You To All

Throughout the past few weeks, I have been collecting coats and other winter articles of clothing to donate to the Greece Ecumenical Clothes Closet.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you who helped make my "From One Closet to Another" Coats for Kids Clothes Project so successful. Early next week, I will be delivering all of the clothes that were collected.

Additionally, I would like to thank the Scott Spino Foundation, Brookside Elementary School, and Autumn Lane Elementary School for their assistance with this project.

As this is the last Community Connection for 2010, I wish all of you a Merry Christmas and a Happy, Healthy, and Safe New Year!

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. School #9 Cookie Contest

Last week, I served as a guest judge for the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. School #9 Cookie Contest. A number of the classes and other members from our community took part in this holiday event. For more photos from the cookie contest, and to see a video of it, visit my facebook page.

Out and About! Wrapping up 2010

On Saturday, December 18th, WDKX will bring Christmas downtown once again. Santa and his elves will be at the Monroe County Office Building from 10:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. collecting and distributing winter coats. For more information, visit my website.

Winter break is right around the corner and many areas will have special recreational events and activities you can check out the following websites for all the details:
