Senator Helming Takes Oath of Office at the State Capitol in Albany

Senator Pam Helming took the oath of office in the Senate Chamber at the State Capitol in Albany on Wednesday, January 8 before the start of the 2025 New York State legislative session.

“This is a moment of great pride for me and my family. I am truly honored and thankful to serve the residents of the 54th Senate District,” said Senator Helming. “As your State Senator, I am committed to fostering strong community relations and providing exceptional constituent services. I will always be a dedicated voice and advocate for the Finger Lakes region. I will be forever grateful for this amazing opportunity to serve.”
