Health Care Resources

Health Coverage

Child Health Plus

Toll Free: 1-800-698-4KIDS (1-800-698-4543)

Child Health Plus is New York's insurance program built for kids. The program is free or has a sliding scale fee depending on a family's income. All New York children under 19 are eligible regardless of income or immigration status. You can enroll your child in health coverage any time of the year online, over the phone, or in-person. Help is available in many languages.

Starting January 1, 2014, you can apply for Child Health Plus coverage through the New York State of Health Marketplace: <https://nystateofhealth.ny.gov/>

Starting January 2017, children will be eligible for Child Health Plus coverage from birth. Newborns must be enrolled prior to birth or within 60 days of birth.

Medicaid

Medicaid is a state-run health insurance program that is primarily available to people with limited incomes or resources but it is also available to those who meet other requirements. Farmers' Markets

New Yorkers can access foods straight from the farm in two ways: farmers' markets and community supported agriculture programs or CSAs. CSA members purchase "shares" in an entire season of high quality, fresh produce grown by local farmers. Members usually pay for their shares in advance, but some CSAs adjust payment to income, accept food stamp benefits, and allow some members to pay week to week. All farmers' markets listed accept EBT/ SNAP (food stamps).
