Nominate a Small Business for Our Business of the Month

bookbook, on a lively stretch of Bleecker Street, was featured in March.

GVSHP seeks to support independent businesses with our “Business of the Month” program. Each month, a local business in Greenwich Village, the East Village, or NoHo is featured on our website, blog, and social media, reaching thousands of local residents. We highlight what makes the business so special and why locals love it. It’s a great way to draw attention to our retail treasures and increase their patronage and support.

Small, independent local businesses face enormous pressures, but we can help.

Nominate your favorite local business TODAY to become GVSHP’s “Business of the Month.”
See reverse for details.
