Dear Neighbor:

On Sunday, March 2, 2014, at 12:30 a.m., a man approached two other men on the platform at the West 4 Street–Washington Square subway station and asked them if they were gay. Both men ignored the question. The man then made a derogatory statement to the men and punched one in his face, causing him to fall to the ground. The perpetrator then fled the station. The victim was treated at Lenox Hill Hospital for a broken nose and a fractured orbital bone.

The perpetrator is described as a white male between the ages of 25 and 30, 5'8" tall, and weighing 170 pounds. A sketch and full description can be found on the opposite side of this letter.

If you have any information regarding the suspect or the attack, please call Crime Stoppers at 1-800-577-8477. A reward is available, and all callers will remain anonymous.
