

Join Senator James Sanders Jr.
on EARTH DAY as he takes the "TUVALU CHALLENGE"

Senator Sanders will be giving a climate speech while standing in the ocean at a podium to highlight the danger of climate change to the 10th Senate District and to the World.

WHEN: Friday, April 22, 2022 at 10:00 AM

WHERE: Rockaway Beach (Beach 73rd Street & Shore Front Parkway)

WHY: Inspired by Tuvalu's foreign minister who gave a speech to the United Nations climate conference in Glasgow standing knee-deep in seawater to show how his low-lying Pacific island nation is on the front line of climate change Earth Day festivities will follow with a tree planting at 11:30 a.m. at Goldie Maple Academy, located at 3-65 Beach 56th Street, Far Rockaway, New York.

Co-Sponsors: Swim Safety, Water Safety Coalition, Regional Ready Rockaway, American Red Cross, Department of Environmental Protection, Equinor, Far Rockaway Library, Orsted, Solar 1, Office of Emergency Management, Department of Sanitation, PTA Goldie Maple Academy, Goldie Maple Academy, Far Rockaway NAACP, Team Crate, NYC Surf, The Heart of Rockaway Civic Association, RISE, UNCA, 149th Street South Ozone Park Civic Association, Spring Jam, and CISTA 4 CLEAN WATER INC.
