

SENATOR JAMES SANDERS JR.

presents

COVID-19 ECONOMIC DISASTER RECOVERY TRAINING FOR SMALL BUSINESSES AND ENTREPRENEURS

WITH CHAIRMAN JOHN HOPE BRYANT OF OPERATION HOPE

As the COVID-19 pandemic continues to shape social norms, non-essential business closures and social distancing measures have drastically affected local small businesses and entrepreneurs. Join New York State Senator James Sanders Jr. and Chairman John Hope Bryant of Operation HOPE as we explore how the dedicated team of counselors at HOPE Inside Disaster are prepared to help small businesses navigate economic recovery.

Monday, June 1, 2020 - 4 p.m.

Facebook.com/StateSenatorJamesSandersJr/

Co-Sponsored By Assembly Members Clyde Vanel and Alicia Hyndman and Council Member Donovan Richards

Community Partners: Minority & Women Contractors & Developers Association (MWCDA), Gateway JFK, Sutphin Blvd. BID, Merchant Association of Rosedale, Laurelton & Springfield Gardens (MARLS), REMA4US, Blaque Resource Network, Rockaway Business Alliance