

Thanksgiving Gathering at the Beach

Please join Senator Elaine Phillips for a post-holiday conservation program at The Sands Point Preserve, including Family Nature Walks & Beach Cleanup

Saturday, November 25
10:00 am – 11:00 am

Meet at Castle Gould's Clock Tower
127 Middle Neck Road, Sands Point, NY

The Sands Point Preserve Conservancy will provide protective gloves and garbage bags, and all participants will receive free admission to the preserve. For questions or to RSVP, please contact Senator Phillips' Office at 516-746-5924

The Sands Point Preserve is located on the original Guggenheim Estate and includes a magnificent 216-acre park, including historic mansions and the Phil Dejana Learning Center. The Preserve is owned by Nassau County and is maintained and operated by the Sands Point Preserve Conservancy, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. The Conservancy provides year-round educational and cultural programs, seasonal celebrations, mansion tours, fitness activities as well as private/corporate event services and film/TV location facilities. The estate's mile-long beach along the LI Sound and Hempstead Harbor is the site of numerous educational and wellness programs throughout the year.
