

Thanksgiving with the Senator

*In the halls of power, a feast takes flight,
Where turkey and speeches mingle just right.
With gratitude shared, and stories to tell,
A gathering of voices we know all too well.*

*From pumpkin pie dreams to political cheer,
We toast to the moments that bring us all near.
So here's to the senator, and the bounty you bring,
In the spirits of thanks, let's all join and sing!*
