

Thankful short essay

I am thankful for my friends because they help me when I need. They cheer me up when I feel sad.

I am thankful for my parents because they are there of me. I am thankful for my sister because she helps me with my homework every day and she cares for me. I am thankful for my school because they care for every one. I am thankful for my teacher because she teaches everyone.

Last is I am thankful for everything and anything I have.